

Personal

105.2089 - James Mills

Robert H. Webster, Esq.

~~New Brunswick.~~

Red Bank -
New Jersey

~~New Jersey -~~

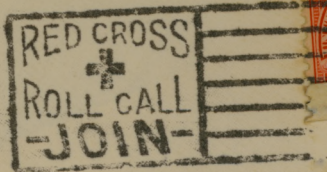

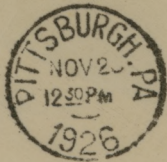

he was married -
We had turned toward the Jamon Lane, merely putting on a few minutes before my train
should be due, when our car lights
flashed on a man, who on my

I taught in New Brunswick in 1922.
In September of that year, I was in the town,
and was riding
with a young professional man,

Escort- said was Thurey Mills - The man was hurrying, and came out struck by our car.

When we heard of the tragedy, you may imagine our plight—!

It was our mission, to stop before anything occurred in my Escort's home - Hence my reason for writing in this manner!

Council McLeathy -

New Brunswick -

N. J.

105.2089 p3

Inasmuch as I am not a Pittsburer (I live near Wilmington Del.) I am sorry for the publicity given to the fact I am leaving for my home this morning, & will see what can be done.

when I reach home. I came here for ^a two weeks visit last week, & am leaving today, for my husband certainly will have his suspicions aroused if he has seen a ^{Engl.} paper.
I was married last June & do not want my home life interfered with.